

IZZY SEARLE

BIO

Izzy Searle is an award-winning writer and script supervisor, who has written many pilots and short films for her own projects and external commissions. Her Sketch 'Barb's Bras' was a finalist for The Comedy Crowd's Chorts 2023. Izzy's play 'Baggy Bra' won Best Comedy Play and Runner Up Audience Choice at the Greater Manchester Fringe, gaining an OffFest Nomination from OffWestEnd and glowing four-star reviews.

In 2022, she was selected for Swanwick Writers' Summer School's TopWrite programme and thoroughly enjoyed her time at Swanwick.

<https://www.izzysearlewriter.com/> In film, Izzy has worked on productions such as Channel Four's 'The Jury: Murder Trial', BBC1's 'Stacey Solomon's Sort Your Life Out', Disney's 'Andor', Working Title's 'Pressure', and several independent short films.

Her directorial debut 'Cereal for Dinner' is currently in preproduction. Izzy trained at Pinewood Studios through a ScreenSkills and BFI funded script supervisor trainee course. Recently, she was awarded a ScreenSkills bursary to attend evening classes at Brighton's Screen and Film School.

<https://www.imdb.com/name/nm14206193/>

Izzy loves writing and filmmaking in equal measure. In her spare time, she runs the local Scout troop and loves to hike